Alice is a journalism student that wakes up with a terrible hangover; she has no recollection of what happened last night beyond the memory of a mysterious object.

Who was the one night stand from last night? Why is she having such strange flash backs? Set in a dark strange future, where things are just a little too perfect, follow Alice as she uncovers a trail of clues and mis-adventures that blur the line between reality and lies.

The first episode of the AR-K saga, is now available and has been extremely well received by fans. Each episode will build on the previous story line with layers of intrigue, satire, romance and comedy to keep audiences coming back for more.

From independent Spanish game makers, Gato Salvaje, AR-K is available in English, Spanish and Italian (subtitled).

CHAPTER 1

KICKSTARTER

<http://www.kickstarter.com/projects/432712414/ar-k-an-old-school-game-with-a-new-twist>

... and a Kickstarter project!

And, what more?

We are doing a new Kickstarter!

With Greg and Ash in the team we can transform this small project into one bigger, with more quality in every aspect.

But we need your help!

You can make your pledge (the rewards are really awesome) or share the project to your friends

The Kickstarter has a lot of surprises, like the video, with Greg Rucka's script and the talented voice of Ash Sroka.

And more...
